APPOMATTOX GETS TWO NEW BUSINESSES ON MAIN STREET

Phil's Carpet Center

Phillip Cocks, owner of Phil's Carpet Center, is shown above with display of carpets in his newly opened store on Main Street, downtown Appomattox. The new business opened Tuesday, June 18th, in the building formerly occupied by Appomattox Radio & TV and carries a complete line of carpeting at prices you can afford.

Self employed before coming to Appomattox, Cocks has ten years experience in installation. He attended school in Brookneal, lives in Lynchburg at the present time, but has many friends and customers in the Appomattox area.

Cocks is married to the former Barbara Gilliam of Pamplin, a graduate of Appomattox High School, and they are the parents of two children, Rita, 9; and Jeffrey, 7. Mrs. Cocks plans to work part-time in their new store.

They plan in the near future to carry a line of wall paper, vinyl, ceramic, and drapery samples.

They invite friends, old and new, to stop by and see them at Phil's Carpet Center.

Virginia TV & Appliance

Virginia TV & Appliance, a new business for downtown Appomattox, has opened in the building formerly operated as Reveo Drug Store.

Virginia TV & Appliance is carrying a line of Kelvinator refrigerators, ranges, dishwashers, freezers and dryers; black and white Motorola Television; Quasar color consoles and portables; Sylvania black/white and color televisions; Electrophonic cabinets and component sets, line of air conditioners, dehumidifiers, air conditioners, large selection of tapes of various types of music, tape cases and black lights and also stereo speakers.

You are invited to come in and meet the new people at the Virginia TV & Appliance and look over the items they have for sale.

Announce Engagement

Mrs. James Morrison McAden announces the engagement of her daughter, Nancy Carol, to Donald Wayne Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Reynolds of Lynchburg, Va. Miss McAden is also the daughter of the late Mr. McAden.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Appomattox High School and North Carolina Baptist Hospital School of Nursing. She served two years in Ghana, West Africa, under the Missionary Journeyman Program and is presently employed in the Coronary Care Unit at Virginia Baptist Hospital.

Mr. Reynolds is a graduate of E. C. Glass High School and Lynchburg College. He presently attends Lynchburg Baptist Theological Seminary.

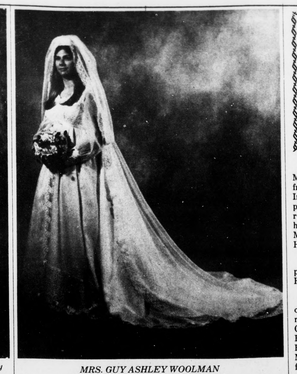
The couple plan to be married August 24, 1974 at Liberty Baptist Church in Appomattox.

Named To Dean's List At R-MWC

LYNCHBURG- Two area students, Julia Sheffield Hesson and Mary Martha Weaver, have been named to the Dean's List at Randolph - Macon Woman's College. They were selected on the basis of their outstanding academic work during the second semester at the college.

Miss Hesson, a rising sophomore, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian B. Hesson, Rt. 2, Gladstone.

Miss Weaver is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Weaver, Route 2, Gladstone. She graduated from R-MWC in commencement exercises on May 12.



MRS. GUY ASHLEY WOOLMAN
the former Miss Donna Jean Hubbard

Wed In Afternoon Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Donna Jean Hubbard of Appomattox, to 2nd Lt. Guy Ashley Woolman of Craig Air Force Base, Alabama, took place at two o'clock in the afternoon of June 15 at Liberty Baptist Church in Appomattox.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. William Christopher Hubbard of Appomattox, and the late Mr. Hubbard. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Voss Woolman of Bluemont.

The Rev. J. J. Bowman, interim pastor of the church, officiated.

A program of nuptial music was provided by Mrs. J. Franklin Vaughan, of Spout Spring, organist of the church and Mrs. Phillip Lea Harrison of Spout Spring, who sang "We've Only Just Begun."

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Robert Collins Hubbard of Appomattox.

The bride wore a full-skirted gown of polyester organza over white satin with an attached chapel-length train. The square neckline bodice was of cotton Nottingham lace, which is also run with the satin ribbon trimming the skirt and train. The mantilla veil was chiffon with matching lace bordering it, falling from a pill-box hat. She carried a white orchid amidst baby's breath, pom poms and stephanotis atop a white Bible. Bridal ribbon cascaded from the bouquet, knotted with stephanotis.

Miss Vicky Diane Rogers of Appomattox was maid of honor. Attendants were Miss Jan Drenning Woolman of Leesburg, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. John Crawford Harris and Miss Pamela Louise Chenault, of Appomattox.

The bridesmaids were multi-colored chiffon polyester over blue satin dresses with a scoop neckline and round sleeves. The Maid of Honor carried a nosegay of yellow daisies and baby's breath with yellow streamers. The attendants carried the same nosegays with white daisies and streamers.

David Curtis Baron of Massapequa Park, New York, served as best man. Ushers were John D. Guthrie of Lovettsville, Lt. Mark Schroeder of Fort Campbell, Kentucky and William Christopher Hubbard, Jr. of Appomattox, brother of the bride.

Miss Cynthia Leigh Whitehead of Appomattox was flower girl, and Robert Collins Hubbard, III of Appomattox, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Thomas M. Richardson, of Appomattox.

Following the ceremony, Mrs. Hubbard entertained with a reception in the church social hall. Mrs. William E. Chenault of Appomattox was in charge of the reception. Mrs. Leslie Ponton and Mrs. Albert Ponton of Lovingston, aunts of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Homer Ponton of Lovingston and Mrs. Leo Ponton of Charlottesville, also aunts of the bride, served the punch.

Assisting at the tables were Mrs. Miller Ponton of Waynesboro, Mrs. Douglas Ponton of Nellysford, and Mrs. Lawrence Ponton and Mrs. Julian Ponton, both of Roseland.

Mrs. Abner Scruggs, Mrs. Harry Jarrell and Mrs. C. R. Wooldridge assisted in the kitchen.

Miss Deborah and Sandra Ponton of Lovingston, cousins of the bride, and Miss Kaye Michelle Chenault of Appomattox stood at the guest registers.

Mrs. Woolman is a 1970 graduate of Appomattox County High School and is a senior at
